

Author Talk

Lou Pechi

Friday October 27th •
2 - 3pm

This is a true story of growing up, before, during, and after the Holocaust. The author tells about his struggle, not only to survive, but also to keep his true identity throughout those difficult years. This is an inspirational story that needs to be told. A story narrated through the eyes of a young boy, fascinated by all that is happening yet unaware of the dangers that surround him.
