

South African Music & Dance

Wednesday, Feb. 21 • 2:30 - 3:30 p.m. • San Carlos Branch Library

Join us for a musical journey of South Africa with artist educator, Nomsa Burkhardt! You will be introduced to the languages, stories, folk music, and dances of the Zulu and Xhosa peoples. Presented by the Center for World Music.

This performance serves as part of a Black History Month celebration to introduce one of Africa's many cultures, as well as pay homage to the history of the African-American experience.

Ages 4-10.

Authentic fables
& folk music!

