

San Carlos Library History

January 9, 2014, will be the 40th Anniversary of the opening of the San Carlos Branch Library in San Diego, CA. We are planning a year-long celebration with many activities.

We are hoping to engage the Navajo Community in joining us in these events. To this end, we are actively seeking those who were living in the area when the library was being built. Tell us some stories. Does anyone have pictures of the ribbon cutting ceremony? Who was our City Councilperson at the time?

Please send your stories to Historian@sancarlosfriendsofthelibrary.org or drop the off at the library for Managing Librarian, Rita Glick or SCFOL Historian, Joan Hayes.
