Youth Special Events

Saturday, September 17, 1-2:30 pm: Pinata Workshop (all ages) Registration required: call 619-527-3430. Families are invited to join us for an afternoon of arty fun in celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month! In this workshop, kids will practice working with papier mâché, and will then decorate their own piñata to take home with them.

Wednesday, November 9, 4-5 pm: Literature Comes to Life (all ages) Registration required: call 619-527-3430. Audience members are invited to participate in the telling of an original folktale! In celebration of Native American Heritage Month, we are presenting Roadrunner's Dance by Rudolfo Anaya. Selected children will act out scenes and get in character by wearing luxurious costumes. Presented by Stacey Wein, Director of Literature Comes to Life. Perfect for the whole family!
