

2020 Short Story Winners

Winners of the Library's 2020 Short Story Contest have been announced. Part of the Local Authors Program, the contest shines a light on talented local writers. This year's winners are:

- 1st Place: "Right Now", by Carl Snow
- 2nd Place: "Cherry Pink and Apple Blossom White", by David Hogan
- 3rd Place: "Shackled to the Basement Wall", by Cheyanne Nelson
- Honorable Mention: "Brilliant Blaze", by Maddy Cowee

Thank you to our Short Story Contest judges for their investment of time and talent. Visit HERE to read the winning stories and hear virtual readings by Write Out Loud.