

How-To Festival Videos Now Available Online

Last month, in partnership with California Coast Credit Union, the Library presented its 6th How-To Festival. The How-To Festival is an interactive community educational event with something for everyone and for all ages. If you missed it, not to worry! All videos are available online for viewing any time that works for you. Round up your family and learn something new together! Learn “How-To” do something new