

DECEMBER 16: AUTHOR Matt Coyle

Friday, December 16 @ 2 p.m., Matt Coyle, author of the best-selling Rick Cahill crime novels., will speak in the Winer Family Community Room & Art Gallery. Coyle knew he wanted to be a crime writer when he was fourteen and his father gave him The Simple Art of Murder, by Raymond Chandler. Matt graduated from the University of California at Santa Barbara with a degree in English, but his foray into crime fiction was delayed for thirty years. His professional life was spent managing a restaurant, selling golf clubs for various golf companies, and in national sales for a sports licensing company. A fun speaker, come for a break from the Holiday rush and enjoy Matt's stories. Click on Author Matt Coyle
