

Oasis-OCTOBER 18: Weird and Wonderful San Diego History.

October 18, 2-3 p.m., in the SCBL Winer Family Community Room & Art gallery, join award-winning author, San Diego Legend Hunter and storyteller Jack Innis as he recounts amazing tales from San Diego's past. Did you know that during WWII, Bing Crosby's "Bomber Builders" took over the Del Mar Racetrack? Have you heard the endearing Kumeyaay tale about the Fisherman who paddled his canoe to a distant island in an attempt to win the heart of a princess? Jack Innis is here to tell it all! Don't miss the chance to hear all the weird and wonderful tales that make up our beautiful city's history. Click October Speaker for more information.
