

JANUARY 17: Adventures on the Pacific Crest Trail & Beyond

On Friday, January 17, 2-3 pm in the San Carlos Branch Library's Winer Family Community Room & Art Gallery, come listen to Dana Law (yes, that's Amazing Dana the Magician) tell us the story of his experience hiking the entire 2,650 miles of the Pacific Crest Trail.

From the Mexican border to Canada, and with 31 sections, this took over 13 years to complete. He will be sharing his incredible adventures, the beautiful sights, and even the mishaps that happened along the way. Click Pacific Coast Trail & Dana Law

Dana will also be sharing advice for those seeking to tackle the trail themselves and information about his current endeavor, hiking the Arizona Trail. for more information on the Pacific Crest Trail, visit <https://www.pcta.org>.
