Libraries are COOL!

When the weather gets too hot, remember that the San Carlos Branch Library is air conditioned and a designated COOL zone. It’s a great time to go browsing among the books and lower your body temperature for an hour or two or join in one of our programs.