

September 26, 2-3 PM: Honoring Native American Musical Creativity

Come listen to an hour of musical appreciation honoring Native American music. This program will feature bird songs, lovely flute melodies, and a great deal more! Native American music can be traditional, but also lush and modern. While very diversified in their presentation, their unity and beauty can be experienced and cherished.

View flyer: Honoring Native American Musical Creativity