“Two Pour Artists”

July 8th - August 1st • Winer Family Community Room

Mother & daughter artist team, Kathy Casanova and Laura Wentz, are La Mesa’s “Two Pour Artists.”

To be a pour painter requires bravery and lots of colorful, drippy and messy moments. The artists flip puddles and pour ribbons of fluid acrylic paint onto a canvas. Then they tilt and swirl, scrape and swipe, torch and blow as they move the paint off the canvas. “It’s fun! It’s also a little harder than it sounds.”
