

Genealogy Research for Beginners

Don Williams

Friday September 20th • 2:00 - 3:30pm

The emphasis on “Genealogy Research for Beginners” is to educate attendees and rapidly get them up to speed with as little confusion as possible. This class will cover definitions, conventions, source examples (where to find them and how to fully exploit them), and techniques to efficiently manage and control your family tree development.

San Diego
Genealogical Society

San Carlos Branch Library
facebook.com/SanCarlosBranchLibrary

7265 Jackson Dr. • 619-527-3430

