

September Artists

Barbara Stewart & Megan Reed

September 6th - October 2nd • Winer Family Community Room

Barbara Stewart began her interest in design at an early age. In college, she was advised that being an Art Major would not guarantee a job as easily as being an Elementary school teacher, so she switched to an Education Major with an Art Minor. She works in various types of media but has found she prefers creating with pastels

Megan Reed is a native San Diegan, who grew up in San Diego's east county. She fell in love with sewing at a very young age and not just the art of sewing but the textiles that went into the projects as well. Over the years, she has created beautiful wall hanging quilts of her own design.
