

December Artist

Ellen Parry

December 6th - January 2nd • Winer Family Community Room

Ellen Parry enjoys landscape painting, whether done en plein air – on site – or in the studio. The back country and ranch lands of northern Baja California provide her inspiration. After working in the private sector as a Graphic Designer, Ellen changed careers to work as a Visual Arts teacher in the Grossmont Union High School District. She draws from skills acquired in both fields to create her oil paintings that celebrate the peace and beauty found in the rural farming and ranching regions of Northern Baja California.

Reception
December 16th
Noon – 2pm

San Carlos Branch Library
facebook.com/SanCarlosBranchLibrary
7265 Jackson Dr. • 619-527-3430

