

Weird and Wonderful San Diego History

Jack Innis, Author, Lecturer, and San Diego's Legend Hunter

Friday, October 18th • 2 - 3pm

Join award –winning author and storyteller Jack Innis as he recounts amazing tales from San Diego's past. From a story of Bing Crosby's "Bomber Builders" taking over the Del Mar Racetrack, to an endearing Kumeyaay tale of a fisherman who paddled his canoe to a distant island in an attempt to win the heart of a princess, Jack Innis is here to tell it all! Don't miss the chance to hear all the weird and wonderful tales that make up our beautiful city's history.
