

February & March Artist

Colleen Swesey

February 5th - March 29th • Winer Family Community Room

Colleen Swesey does not belong to quilting or art guilds but considers herself an artist and prefers to work alone. She has been sewing for as long as she can remember, making blankets and clothes for her baby dolls and Barbies. She made a quilt for her husband 50 years ago for a wedding present and has been quilting ever since. She prefers to make her quilts out of wool and really enjoys adding embroidery to her projects.
